dialogue 1

Carter Hey Jenna, What's the matter? You look so angry.

Jenna Yeah, Carter, I'm so annoyed. My Geography teacher gave me a really bad mark on my power-point presentation. It's so unfair.

Carter Come on, you've got a lot of good marks anyway. That one bad mark isn't the end of world. Let's go and have a drink together, that'll cheer you up.

dialogue 2

Mum Amelia, we have to talk. It's the third time this week I've come home from work and you haven't cleaned up the kitchen. You know it is your job and now I'm really upset about it.

Amelia Mum, I have so much homework to do. I just don't have time.

Mum And why were you just chatting on the phone when I came home? You always say that, but I can see on the phone bill that you use the phone for hours every day! I don't accept your excuses any longer. Now, something is going to happen.

Amelia Oh Mum, you're just horrible.

Mum That's enough, Amelia. Stop being rude. Now I'm really annoyed. You are not going to that party on Saturday.

Amelia Mum! You can't do that to me!!!!

Mum End of discussion.

dialogue 3

Zoe Hey Laura, what's up? You look kind of sad.

Laura Hey Zoe, have you seen the new edition of our school newspaper?

Zoe No, why?

Laura There's a horrible photo of me in it, and the whole school is going to see how stupid I look on it. I feel so embarrassed.

Zoe Let me see.... oh... well, it's not your best photo, but it doesn't look stupid. Honestly, Laura, relax and take it easy!
You're so pretty you just can't look bad on a photo anyway.

Laura Do you really think so?

Zoe Yes, sure.

Laura Oh thanks, Zoe, you're so wonderful. You're just an angel.
